Your Hunt

All hunting dates are actual hunting days in the field. Transportation in and out of the hunting area takes place the day immediately before and after these dates (weather permitting). Hunts are conducted by back packing, horse-back or boat depending on the nature of the hunt and the species pursued.

Included on the Hunt

- One hunting guide per hunter(1:1), unless 2:1 is requested
- Full accommodation and meals while in hunting area
- Field care of trophies including salting and drying of capes
- Transport of meat and trophies to Whitehorse
- Expediting in Whitehorse before and after hunt

Not included in the Hunt Price

- 6 % Harmonized Sales Tax which applies to all Hunt Prices and Harvest Fees.
- Your travel to Whitehorse
- Hotel and meals in Whitehorse before and after the hunt
- Hunting License, Tags and Royalties (see list below)
- Taxidermy work, crating and shipping of trophies
- Gratuities to your guide

Miscellaneous

Non hunting companion, per day	$410.00
Camp Holiday	Inquire
Early leave from camp back to Whitehorse	Inquire

Deposit on Hunt and Harvest Fees

To confirm your booking, a 50% deposit of the hunt price is required. The balance of the Hunt Price and the transportation fee of $1200.00 is due in December for Winter Wolf hunts, March for Spring Bear hunts and May for Sheep, Goat, Caribou and Moose hunts. Harvest Fees for additional animals are due upon arrival in Whitehorse but are completely refundable at the end of the hunt if the animal is not harvested. Wounded game is considered harvested. Harvest fees must be paid in Traveler's checks, Bank Draft or Cash.
